Solemnity of Christ the King Gospel Reflection

Born for this...

As we mark the end of the Church year we are invited to reflect back on the question...WHY? Why was Jesus born into the world?...Why was he persecuted?...Why was he crucified?...Why did he rise again?... Our Gospels throughout the year invite us to ponder on these questions as we walk through the life of Jesus Christ...true God and true Man.

Today we are reminded of all that has gone before and is now revealed to us – Why? Because today we celebrate the WHY of Jesus' life among us on earth. He was born for this...to show us how to live as God's holy people – to love God and to love all people.

To be of service to one another out of love. We are baptised into the family of God, as priest, prophet and king. Today we see Jesus revealed as King of, but not of this world rather one who serves, looking out for the poor, the weak, the oppressed, caring for all of God's creation.

Today take time to reflect on the life of Jesus as one who was born for this...ask yourself...was I born for this too? If so, how do I live this Gospel life in the manner of Jesus?

THANK YOU

A special word of thanks to all who took leadership here in our parish each morning during the past week - Monday to Thursday in our liturgies of the Word and Holy Communion and to the parishioners who gathered each day

Over the past two weekends we had six Masses of Remembrance for all of over 80 people who died in the parish in the previous 12 months. Fr Charlie wishes to thank the Funeral Ministry Team and Parish Pastoral Council, The Ministers of the Word and Eucharist, Fr Dwayne and Deacon David, also the singers and musicians Linda & Dave, Siobhan & Michael, Noreen, Rham, Jessica and the Mayfield Men's Shed Choir. Finally to Pat O'Leary and Mary Hurley. Thanks to all the families for attending and the wider Parish Community. With your help and support it would not be possible - Thank you sincerely...

STEPPING STONES to a new future...

The priests of the Cork & Ross Diocese gathered in Killarney last week to start planning for the future. It is one step of many stepping stones, in planning together for what lies ahead in the years to come. Over the four days the Bishop and priests worked through facilitation. The gathering heard the voices and concerns of priests and parishes – no decisions were made as this will be a slow process taking small steps at the time into the future.
