GOSPEL REFLECTION Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

We are invited to the wedding at Cana

Our Gospel this weekend invites us to join the party at the wedding at Cana. Jesus is there with his mother, Mary and his disciples alongside neighbours and friends. Weddings in Jesus' time went on for several days and even up to a full week. We are not told the names of the happy couple whose nuptials we are celebrating but it seems to be a great party being enjoyed by many people.

It is Mary who first notices that the wine has run out – an embarrassment for the couple especially the bridegroom whose role in Jewish weddings is to ensure everything is well provided for all who come. Mary, like every good mother, looks for a solution before any of the guests notice and she takes her son aside and asks him to help. Jesus is not as responsive as she expects at first, however Mary ignores his initial response and turns to the servants to whom she says “Do whatever he tells you”. These are the last words recorded in the any of the Gospels as spoken by Mary and they are the legacy she hands on to us. It is an expression of faith.

To serve the Lord means to listen and to put into practice what He says to us. Each day we too are invited like the servants at the wedding to “Do whatever he tells you”.

Marriages at Our Lady Crowned Church

Since our church opened in 1962
1,016 Marriages have taken place

RECENT DEATHS

We extend our condolences and sympathies to the families of:

Paddy Noonan – Lotamore
Kenneth Connole – Montenotte
Aisling Murphy - Offaly
May they rest in peace – Amen.

This past week the callous death of Aisling Murphy in Tullamore has shocked the whole country – This weekend in solidarity with all those who have come together to remember this talented young person and her distraught family – we pray that we will never see a tragic death like this again. May Aisling rest in peace.
