GOSPEL REFLECTION 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

Decluttering...

As spring comes upon us once more we are called to think about cleaning...clearing out...decluttering our homes to make way for the new season. All around us newspapers, magazines and websites offer us tips from the professionals as to how best to tackle the clutter of our lives.

Today's Gospel invites us into a personal decluttering...to let go of the baggage we hold onto. We are called to take time to reflect on the hurts we hold onto, the injustices done to us, the grudges we hold against others, the jealousy, the anger and resentment – what would our life be like if we let go of all of this clutter?

Letting go...offers us more space in our minds and hearts...for God and for others. We are invited to forgive...to show mercy...to be compassionate...to be understanding of one another – then we will have peace of mind and hearts of love for others who have hurt us in the past. Resentment and anger eat into our hearts and we have no eyes for all that is good that God offers to us.

To make space for God's love in our lives we need to let go...to declutter just as Jesus did when he made the ultimate sacrifice for us, giving his life on the cross. He gave his life for us – we too must give without counting the cost. Let us begin by letting go of all that weighs us down to make room for joy, for love and for compassion.
