Reflection 2nd Sunday of Easter 2022

Jesus comes again and again...bringing peace

Even though Mary has shared with the disciples her joy at meeting the Risen Jesus the disciples have hidden themselves away, out of fear - it is a natural reaction after all they have experienced. The locked doors do not stop Jesus, in he comes bringing peace to their troubled, anxious hearts and minds.

This reaction of the disciples is the same as our own – when we are afraid, insecure, uncertain we turn in on ourselves. We too often hide away. What would it be like if we allowed Jesus into these moments of our lives – allowed him to bring peace to us? Allow the breath of the Spirit into our minds and hearts to take away all our fears?

And, having come once to show himself to the disciples he comes again, to meet Thomas who was not there on his first visit. Thomas though, wants more – he wants proof. He is not satisfied to hear from the others, No, he wants to see and touch for himself. How often have we sought absolute proof? Again Jesus brings his peace to them and especially to Thomas and allows him to see and to touch. Thomas stands in place of many of us who want proof and peace within.

Jesus continually offers us his peace just as he offered it to the first disciples. It is only with the breath of the Holy Spirit on us bringing us peace can we go forth to a world – to find and fulfil our mission in the midst of a world that needs the peace of Christ today. Let us accept his peace and go forth with joy to proclaim Christ is alive!

Recent Deaths

We extend our prayers and sympathies to the families of:

Albert Scannell – Iona Green

Peggy Murphy – Avonmore Park

May all our deceased loved ones rest in eternal peace Amen.

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND Diocesan Needs – Quarterly Collection

The faith community is most present in parishes. Some elements of the ministry, services and mission of the local church are organised at diocesan level. These include our Safeguarding Office, Diocesan Education Office, Mission and Ministry, GDPR compliance, communication costs, professional fees, staff and administrative costs. This broad range of diocesan supports and services is funded from the Diocesan Needs Quarterly Collection.
