Reminders...

If you are like me you need reminders...to do lists...diary alerts...post it notes...all to help me remember important appointments, meetings, special dates and things to be done. Life is always full of "important things" that have to be attended to.

Our Gospel today is full of reminders from Jesus – it is a section of his speech to the disciples at the Last Supper as recorded by John. It serves to remind us today too of what is really important This is not a list of 'things to be done' rather it is a reminder of who Jesus is and how we are to live if we call ourselves his followers. Jesus begins with love and how in love we will find a home with God. He moves on to his promise, to send the Holy Spirit who is the manifestation of love between Father and Son, who will be our constant reminder of how we are to live in the world. He then bestows his peace on the disciples and on us too as this gift of peace will take away all our fears and troubles if we hand them over to the Lord.

This discourse signs off with Jesus speaking of his leaving them to continue His work in the world – reminding us too that next Sunday we will celebrate the Ascension of the Lord into heaven. The Holy Spirit will then be our friend and guide as we, like the disciples, navigate our way in the world as we too seek to bring the Gospel to all whom we encounter. So add this to your reminder list – Jesus is handing on to us his mission of love, that we will continue all that he has shown us during his earthly life.

The Synodal Pathway

of the Catholic Church in Ireland

What is the Synodal Pathway ?

The Holy Father asks every Catholic in the world to have a say in the life of the Catholic Church! During this month of May, our diocese will be opening up ways for people to have a say and to listen and have an input into next year's Synod meeting in Rome which is called by Pope Francis.

The easiest way to find out more and to have your say is to go to <http://synod.corkandross.org> where an online confidential questionnaire is available to be filled in. (It'll take about 15 minutes.)

It's open until May 24th. All the responses will be collated and added to the feedback from meetings being held across the diocese with randomly selected groups during May.

A summary document will be forwarded from our diocese at the end of May.

So, it's time to have your say at:
<http://synod.corkandross.org>.

The Synodal Pathway – Diocese of Cork and Ross

Our Parish has been randomly selected to take part in one of two meetings on this Sunday from 2.30pm to 5.30pm at the Rochestown Park Hotel in relation to the Synodal Process in our Diocese. Ten people have been invited to attend this gathering from a cross section of people in our parish.
