Gospel Reflection PENTECOST SUNDAY

Pentecost – Unity in diversity

Today we hear much about diversity and appreciating the differences between people – we may think this is something new, but today we see that difference has always been part of who we are as unique individuals created by God. As we celebrate Pentecost we see diversity among people as being at the heart of humanity. We see the Holy Spirit come upon this diverse group of disciples – fishermen, tax collectors from different social and educational backgrounds and yet each one is called by God, and is brought together by Jesus. Some were vocal and outspoken, others were quiet and stayed more in the background. Jesus did seek to change them in any way, no, he sought to unite them through the gift of the Holy Spirit as he promised.

Last week we heard them preparing for the great commission and here today we see the Holy Spirit come upon them drawing them together in all their differences and with this anointing with the Spirit comes their unity. Though speaking different languages they are all understood – the Spirit unites them as one body, gifted and ready to go forth to bring the Gospel to all peoples of the earth.

What unites us? as a parish community, as the Body of Christ, the People of God. It is the same Holy Spirit who has come upon us at Baptism and Confirmation drawing us together in union with one another. Just as Jesus did not seek to change the disciples he does not seek to change us – but to call us together through the Spirit as one, as brothers and sisters ready to go forth to proclaim the Good News to the world of today. Have courage, be united, go forth, be witnesses in the world, share the Spirit...
