Gospel Reflection

PENTECOST SUNDAY 2023

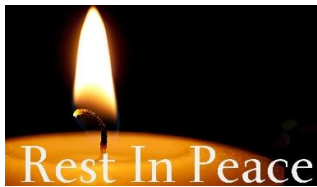

Happy birthday!

To each and every one of us – why? Because it is Pentecost the birthday of the Church and we are the Church. So let us all celebrate!

Our readings today tell us of the Holy Spirit being breathed into us, just as it was into the apostles on that first Pentecost day, so that we too may become bearers of the good news to all nations and peoples. Each of us has a part to play, each of us has the gifts we need from God to put at the service of the Church in the world. Just as there are a variety of needs in the world so there are gifts enough to respond to those needs.

The Holy Spirit is described by the apostles as wind and flame – but its effect is that of giving each of us who are open to receive this gift the courage, the wisdom, the knowledge we need to speak to others of Jesus and his message in ways they can understand. It will need more than just words – the message of Christ in all its fullness is to be lived each day in our words, our actions, our way of living, our way of being alongside others.

So today let us celebrate being the Church of our time and place, let us celebrate all that we have been gifted with and let us take those gifts to others that they too will come to know and love Jesus and his message.
