Gospel Reflection

Come...rest...

As we enter the peak holiday season we are reminded to come to Jesus and to rest. But this is not just a superficial, short break from the everyday routine.

Today's Gospel invites us to begin by praising God for all that he has taught us his children – the ones who stay close to him, who listen to him, who want to learn from him and who carry forth all that he asks of us. This is in contrast to the Pharisees, the clever ones who believe they know it all...they fail to understand because they do not listen, they do not stay close, they have not embraced humility as children of God are called to do.

We have to ask ourselves are we truly living as children of God... staying close... listening... learning?

Only when we can say to this are we invited to come and to find rest with Jesus...to come to him and lay down all our worries, anxieties, burdens – then we will truly enter a time of rest and peace of mind and heart.

Family of Parishes

In relation to:

St. Patrick's ~ Holy Family,
Mayfield (St. Joseph's)
and Upper Mayfield – Our Lady Crowned.

Bishop Fintan Gavin...

Introducing Families of Parishes in my Pastoral Letter Putting Out into Deep Waters last year I said that if we needed to revise some of the arrangements around Families of Parishes, we would do so.

I propose widening the Family of Parishes of South Parish, Ss. Peter and Paul and St. Patrick's to link with the Parishes of Blackpool/
The Glen/Ballyvolane,
Sunday's Well and the Cathedral.

In this arrangement, the Pastoral Care of Holy Family Church, Military Hill, will be part of the Family of Parishes of Mayfield (St. Joseph's) and Upper Mayfield – Our Lady Crowned in this part of the city.

The Future...

On Saturday August 12th, the Family of Parishes of Our Lady Crowned - Upper Mayfield and St Joseph's - Mayfield with the Pastoral Care of Holy Family Church will take effect.

On that day Fr Charles Kiely will assume the role of Co-PP and Moderator. In this new appointment, Fr Charlie will continue to reside at Our Lady Crowned Church and work with a team of priests with Fr Criostóir MacDonal Co-PP and Fr Pontianus Jafla CC pro tem in the pastoral care of this Family of Parishes.

Fr Charlie's appointment as Moderator to this Family of Parishes forms part of an overall plan of renewal for the Diocese of Cork and Ross towards mission that puts more emphasis on co-responsibility and shared leadership with lay people and priests working together.

Recent Deaths

We extend our prayers and sympathies to the families of:

Owen Casey – Montenotte
Kevin Cooke – Late of Bishopstown
Nora Long – Gweedore Ave
John Healy – Mayfield

May all our deceased loved ones rest in eternal peace. Amen.

Fr Casimir Returns

Fr Casimir has returned to Our Lady Crowned Church and will assist both here and at St Joseph's Church. He will reside with Fr Charlie for the next 3 months when he returns to Rome to continue his studies.
