Words or actions?

Have you ever been in a situation where you or someone you know said one thing and did another? A familiar scenario – ‘do as I say, not as I do’

Today we meet two sons – focus on the second son, who said yes he would go to the vineyard and yet did not follow through by his actions. What would you say to him?

The first son however, said no he would not go, but then had a change of heart and went into the vineyard.

When asked who did the father’s will, the people around named the first son as the one who did as he was asked, even though he at first had said no to his father.

We are often faced with similar dilemmas, today’s Gospel calls us to think again, just like the first son, and do the right thing – follow through, follow the way of Jesus, follow the example of true Christian living – then we will rejoice in the kingdom of God.

So, as you reflect on this Gospel today ask yourself what do you desire in your life – if you desire to be welcomed into God’s kingdom then you must live in the love and example of Jesus each day, allowing your actions to speak of Him.

PLEASE NOTE: That all our Masses are livestreamed and that our church and grounds are monitored with 24 HOUR CCTV
