Baptism... a meeting point...

Baptism is the first sacrament we receive... our first meeting point with God when we become members of the Church... we become a Christian. From this point on we will grow closer to God, closer to each other as brothers and sisters in Christ and will go on to further meeting points with Christ when we receive the other sacraments of the Church. Each meeting point is a stepping stone on our journey of faith...some we receive only once...others we receive many times.

Baptism also calls us to take on responsibilities... as parents and godparents we bring children to their Baptism and so faith is passed on from generation to generation and from heart to heart. This has been so since the beginning when Jesus was baptised in the River Jordan and sent his apostles to baptise all nations. Our responsibilities do not have their end in bringing others to this meeting point... they continue for the whole of our lives.

We are called to take responsibility for witnessing to Jesus and his teaching every day of our lives... we are called to take responsibility for sharing our faith with others... for speaking up for the good of others. We are also responsible for the life of our faith communities... perhaps this is a time to reflect on how I live up to these responsibilities... how do I witness to Jesus each day... how do I share my faith with others... how do I speak up for Christian values... how do I take responsibility for the continuing life of this faith community to which I belong?
