5th Sunday of Lent Gospel Reflection

Just one hour ...

Today's Gospel opens with some men wanting to "see" Jesus but when the question is put to him he points towards "the hour" ...

Think back over the last week – all 168 hours of your week... did you spend each hour wisely... did you waste some of those hours ...

The hour Jesus points us towards today is his last hour when he will be raised on the cross to his death... and then raised from the earth in his resurrection three days later. This is what we are preparing to remember and celebrate in these days of Lent.

Have you spent even one hour this Lent pondering what we are preparing for?

In our pondering and prayer over the next week let us look towards the cross or the crucifix... the one here in the church...the one in your home... the one you wear... The cross is not just an ornament... it is a daily reminder of sacrifice... of death and of resurrection.

St Patrick's Breastplate

Christ with me,
Christ before me,
Christ behind me,
Christ within me,

Christ below me,
Christ above me,
Christ on my right hand,
Christ on my left hand,

Christ in my sleeping,
Christ in my waking,

Christ in the heart of all who think of me,
Christ in the mouth of all who speak of me,
Christ in very eye that looks at me,
Christ in every ear that listens to me.
